

ALLE – Post-module Student Focus Group Questions

What did you think about the Learning Journeys and the resources within them?

Were they or were some of them helpful?

In what ways were they helpful?

Do you think that the LJs have improved your skills in these areas? Which ones / examples

Are you glad you had the LJs? What would it would have been like without them?

At which point in the module did you use them? - When asked to? When needed?

How did you use them? - Once? Go back over them as necessary?

The Learning Journey's were designed to give you a range of Information and Communication Technology skills, what we call ICT

Think now about using ICT at University

When you first came to the University, how did you think you might be using ICT to support your studies?

Has your experience been like that? Different?

Did you feel well prepared for the way ICT is used?

How do you think you could have been better prepared?

Where do you normally go for help if you have a problem with doing an assignment?
Probe for all kinds of help e.g. other students, the internet

Where do you normally go for help if you have a problem using ICT?

Think now about the skills you were developing in the Learning Journey materials

How important do you think these skills are going to be:

- to be successful in your studies?
- to be successful in your life after University?

Do you think the University should be focusing on these skills more, less, or is it about right?

Do you feel confident that your teaching staff understand these skills? – In other modules?

How do you think the Learning Journey materials could be most useful to students? When should they be used?

Do you think there could have been other ways we could have taught you these topics?

What did you think about the look and design of the resources?

What suggestions do you have for improving them?

Are there any other topics that you would have liked to have included in the Learning Journeys?

Did you think that some of the topics were not needed?

I'd like you to try and think back at the ratings you gave yourself in the first questionnaire in each of the areas covered by the Learning Journeys:

Did you find it difficult to rate your skills in the topic areas covered by the Learning Journeys?

Do you think your ratings were accurate? Did you rate yourselves more highly because you thought that is what we wanted to hear?

Have you got any other comments to make / is there something I haven't asked you about?
